holidays...

One of the top three sites in the country!

Set in over 20 acres of tranquil parkland, South Lytchett Manor is the ideal base for exploring outstanding local countryside, places of historic interest and a wide variety of nearby family attractions.

Just three miles from Poole and within walking distance of the pretty village of Lytchett Minster, its impressive grounds are full of beautiful flowering plants, mature trees and abundant wildlife including graceful roe deer.

Recently extended and improved by new owners, South Lytchett Manor has long been a firm favourite with caravanners and campers alike. Many visitors return year after year to enjoy the friendly and relaxed atmosphere on this family-run site which in 2008, took third place in the top 100 sites named by Practical Caravan Magazine. The park also won the top award for Dorset, being named as the Regional Winner.
