Voted top site in Dorset again and again and again!

Set in over 20 acres of tranquil parkland, South Lymington Manor is the ideal base for exploring outstanding local countryside, places of historic interest and a wide variety of nearby family attractions.

The site is just three miles from Poole and within walking distance of the pretty village of Lymington Minster with its friendly pubs and restaurant. Recently extended and improved by new owners, South Lymington Manor also has impressive grounds featuring beautiful flowering plants, mature trees and abundant wildlife including graceful roe deer.

Caravanners and campers alike return year after year to enjoy the friendly and relaxed atmosphere on this family-run site which has been voted the top site in Dorset for four years in a row by readers of Practical Caravan Magazine, who also placed it in overall second position nationally in 2010.

Perfect for camping, caravans and motor homes

This stylish, award-winning camping and caravan park is located in the lush grounds of a former Manor House and reflects the experience and knowledge of its owners, themselves experienced campers who understand exactly what makes a great holiday.

The site offers unbeatable facilities including a shop, Information Centre, deluxe pitches, and television hook-ups to all deluxe and superior pitches.

Discerning caravan and motor home enthusiasts need look no further than South Lymington Manor for a perfect base from which to explore the beautiful Dorset countryside and coastline, and enjoy a trouble-free and peaceful stay in the lovely South West of England.
